‘If we really understood the priest on earth, we would die: not of fear, but of love.’ St John Vianney’s whole life could be summed up in this saying attributed to him. Known as the ‘Curé d’Ars,’ Jean-Baptiste-Marie Vianney was born on May 8th 1786 in France in the town of Dardill. His devout Catholic parents were farmers, and from an early age, John worked in the fields. Without formal education, he was functionally illiterate, but thanks to his mother’s teaching, Vianney was able to memorize and understand numerous prayers, and live a devout religious life.

At that time in France, the winds of Revolution were blowing. Young John made his Confession at home, rather than in a church, to a ‘non-juring’ priest (a priest who had not sworn loyalty to the revolutionary government.) The same priest gave him his First Communion in a barn, during an ‘underground’ Mass. At the age of 17, John Vianney felt the call to the priesthood. He famously said, ‘If I am to be a priest I will win many souls for God’. But the path to ordination was not an easy one, due to the corrupted morals of the time. It was only thanks to some wise priests - including Father Balley, the parish priest of d’Ecully, that he finally received Holy Orders on February 13th 1815, at the age of 29.

Three years later, in 1818, Father John Vianney was sent to the tiny town of Ars, with just 230 residents. Here he dedicated all his efforts to the spiritual care of the faithful. He visited the poorest families, restored the village church, organized patronal feast days and founded La Providence, a home for girls. But it was for his dedication to the Sacrament of Confession that the Curé of Ars is best known. He was always available to hear Confessions and offer forgiveness, spending up to sixteen hours a day in the confessional. Crowds of penitents travelled from every part of France to make their Confession to the holy priest. In time, Ars became known as ‘the great hospital of souls.’ St John Vianney himself would keep vigils and fast to assist the expiation of the sins of the faithful. ‘I’ll tell you my recipe,’ he told one of his confreres. ‘I give sinners a small penance, and the rest I do in their place.’

Having given his whole life for God and his parishioners, John Vianney died on August 4th 1859. He was 73 years old. His relics can be found in Ars, in the sanctuary dedicated to him, which is visited by some 450.000 pilgrims every year. He was beatified by Pope St Pius X in 1905, and canonized twenty years later by Pope Pius XI.

St. Bernard Parish extends heartfelt thanks to everyone who helped make our 3 weeks of Prayer & Action a success. We are especially grateful to our team leaders— Adam, Chris, Gus, Emma, Lia, & Ella— whose faith, enthusiasm, & servant leadership inspired everyone involved.

A special thank you to the visiting priests who generously assisted with Confessions & Masses, as well as Bishop Vincke for his support and presence.

We are also deeply grateful to the youth & adult sponsors from parishes throughout the Diocese of Salina who served our community with dedication and compassion. Their work on projects in Kanopolis, Wilson, & Ellsworth made a lasting difference in the lives of many.

Lastly, thank you to our parishioners, volunteers, donors, prayer partners, & everyone who supported this ministry. Your generosity, prayers, & willingness to serve reflected Christ's love in countless ways.

May God bless all who participated in Prayer & Action and may the fruits of this ministry continue to grow in our communities & beyond.
